

Clear Your Desk

by Kathleen Wiley

Clear your desk. Put all your things away.
Clear your desk. That's all there is today.
Clear your desk and listen to your teacher
So that (she'll/he'll) be sweeter.
Just clear your desk, 'cause it's the thing to do.
No more mess and so we're ready to listen now..

Chairs Up

by Kathleen Wiley

Chairs up! Clean up the room! Clean up the room today.
Chairs up! Clean up the room! There's nothing left for us to say.
We'll clean up our table because we are able
We'll clean up our area too.
Because we don't mind it we'll all get behind it
We're cleaning for me and for you.
I'll help you clean your space and then you'll help me clean mine.
We'll help others we know. We're helping all of the time.
We're working together in all kinds of weather
'Cause working together is fun!
You know we will hurry, you don't need to worry
And now all our cleaning is done!
