

In The Line

by Kathleen Wiley

When I'm standing in the line facing front,
Then I'll look fine... in the line... in the line.
When I'm walking in the line facing front,
Then I'll look fine... in the line... in the line.
With my hands at my side I will walk a sturdy stride..
In the line... in the line.
Walking one behind the other
I won't crowd my sister or brother,
In my very, very fine line.

Library

by Kathleen Wiley

To the library we're go-ing now.
To the library we'll show them how
We will sit, and we will listen quietly
Then take a bow.
We will get our books, walk down the hall
Get admiring looks, we'll show them all
Library is where we learn.
Listening now, top praise we'll earn.
