

The Quiet Song

by Kathleen Wiley

'Sit in your seat and raise your hand' is your teacher's favorite command.
Feet on the floor and don't talk out, face the front and quiet your mouth!
Hands on your desk and please don't fiddle or write or talk or laugh or giggle.
Don't make noise in any way, don't even silently negotiate!
Please, just be good girls and boys. Don't make jokes or play with toys.
Please, all be your teacher's pets and don't up-set (her/him)
You know how (she/he) gets!

Quiet Free - Time Song

by Kathleen Wiley

Read a story, write a story, workbook time.
Or, if you prefer it, you may read, or write a rhyme.
But remember all you do is quiet time.
Read a story, write a story, workbook time.
So, it's workbook time, or it's story time.
Read a story, write a story, workbook time!
